Forty-fifth NEIHA

Session 2026

Hosted by

The Assam Royal Global University

Guwahati, Assam

Date: 18th, 19th and 20th of November, 2026

Dear NEIHA Members,

Royal Global University, Guwahati is pleased to host the 45th Session of the North East India History Association (NEIHA) from 18th to 20thNovember 2026 and on behalf of the University, I would like to cordially welcome all the delegates to the conference.

ABOUT THE HOST INSTITUTION:

The Assam Royal Global University (RGU) is a premier private university of Northeast India. The University, founded by an Act of the Assam State Legislative Assembly in 2013, became operational from 2017. Today, The Assam Royal Global University offers more than 130 academic programmes through its 24 Schools of Studies, including the Royal School of Humanities and Social Sciences, under which the Department of History functions as a constituent department.

RGU's academic philosophy reflects the spirit of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, emphasising flexibility, critical thinking, and experiential learning, while making inclusivity and excellence its cherished goals. For the university, sustainability remains a guiding principle, visible in the initiatives such as the one megawatt on-grid solar power system, extensive tree plantation drives, and waste-recycling efforts, empowerment of women, poverty alleviation and protection of environment that align with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The Central Library offers a robust knowledge repository of over fifty thousand books, complemented by access to more than 3.5 lakh e-journals and 5.4 lakh e-books for advanced learning and research.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

The Department of History, established in 2018, offers undergraduate, postgraduate, and Ph.D. programmes and has emerged as one of the important pillars of RGU's academic strength. Like other components of The Assam Royal Global University, the Department of History places supreme emphasis on research and has designed its courses in accordance with the guidelines provided by the Government of India while also keeping in mind the global currents of the discipline. Likewise, research in the department prioritises the needs of the region where the university is located, while maintaining national and global perspectives. The major considerations behind the courses are their applicability to real historical situations, their potential to ensure employability, and their alignment with global standards of research.
